CASSIS

Steven Smith, Head Chef for Cassis has a story to tell. Steven is a Lancashire lad, not for him the life of celebrity - he has his feet firmly on the ground!

His Michelin starred career has found him working at the Box Tree and Gilpin Lodge before returning to Stanley House a couple of years ago, just in time to take the helm as Head Chef in 2007.

He tells his story from the Cassis kitchen, his passion for food delivered to your table on a plate.

Three great reasons to put Cassis in your diary.....
